If you are having trouble finding flights inside the given windows of time, please contact SEACAMP to discuss.

Please double-check all flight information before you submit the Travel Information Form. Incorrect information makes it difficult for us to check schedules and look for early arrivals or delayed or cancelled flights. Sometimes airlines will change flight numbers, carriers or times – please keep us up-to-date. The correct information is needed in order for SEACAMP to provide a timely pick-up. Please note, all students must be traveling as ticketed passengers – we cannot have students flying as “standby” passengers. Students are required to wear high quality face coverings in the airports and on flights for air travel to San Diego and for all flights in the 10 days prior to session start date.

Arrival

Flights should arrive on the first day of camp between 9:00am and 12:00pm to San Diego International Airport (SAN). Upon arrival, students should walk directly to the baggage claim area (follow signs). SEACAMP staff will meet students at the baggage claim carousel for their flight. Staff will be wearing SEACAMP San Diego t-shirts and holding yellow “camper pick-up” sign. If applicable, students should wear last year’s SEACAMP t-shirt so that we can identify them quickly upon arrival. After luggage has been retrieved, students are escorted to vans waiting to take them to the SEACAMP facility.

- Travel Fee: Arriving Early – For flights that arrive prior to 9:00am, there will be no additional charge. Students will wait at baggage claim for SEACAMP Staff to pick up at 9:00am. Arriving Late – Flights arriving between 12:01pm and 1:00pm are subject to $50.00 fee. Student may need to go directly to beach to meet up with the group and will miss some of the scheduled activities. Every effort should be made to arrive inside the provided windows of time; students socially integrate much better if they arrive on time. Flights must arrive by 1:00pm.

Departure

Flights should depart on the last day of camp between 2:00pm and 5:00pm from San Diego International Airport (SAN). Students will arrive at the airport approximately 120 – 150 minutes before their scheduled flights. SEACAMP staff will assist students with the check-in process and see them to security checkpoints. Students can call the 1-800- SEACAMP (1-800-732-2267) number in case of cancellation or delay after they are through security. Departing Late – For flights departing between 5:00pm – 7:00pm, there will be no additional charge. Students will go to the airport with the last group of students. Students must not depart any earlier than 10:00am or any later than 7:00pm.

Unaccompanied Minor

Most students that fly to camp are minors and are unaccompanied. However, some students will travel as designated Unaccompanied Minors either by choice or airline requirement. Unaccompanied Minor service is NOT included in tuition and flight(s) must arrive and depart inside provided windows of time. There is a $75.00 service fee per student, per leg of travel. Student’s Unaccompanied Minor status MUST be noted on Travel Information Form for service to be provided.

SEACAMP staff will receive a pass from airline to allow access to meet student directly at the gate upon arrival. Upon departure, SEACAMP staff are again approved to enter the security area without a ticket and wait with student at the departure gate until plane departs. SEACAMP staff’s ability to access secured areas is reliant on the pass from the airline, please ensure all of the airline’s requirements and fees are paid to airline to allow service.

- If your airline of choice requires additional information, give the SEACAMP office a call/email and we will provide you with any information they need.
- Make sure all additional fees to the airline are paid for travel in both directions.
- Make sure SEACAMP Unaccompanied Minor fees are paid.
- If SEACAMP San Diego is not informed of Unaccompanied Minor status on Travel Information Form by May 15, we will not be able to provide service for the student. Any changes to travel after May 15 must be approved by SEACAMP.

Luggage should be no bigger than 10 inches tall, 30 inches deep, and 35 inches wide. Please also take a look at the “Rules and Policies” section for a list of items not permitted at camp. For students traveling by air, bags need to follow TSA guidelines and individual airline restrictions.

Facility, Dorms, & Bathrooms

SEACAMP San Diego facility is located at the Fiesta Island Youth Aquatic Center (San Diego Youth Aquatic Center on google) on beautiful Mission Bay in San Diego, CA approximately 7 miles from the San Diego International Airport. The Youth Aquatic Center is shared by multiple user groups with the Boy Scouts of America and SEACAMP San Diego as the primary users. While at camp, other programs will run alongside our SEACAMP programs; however, SEACAMP students have dedicated unshared space, such as the dorms and classrooms during labs/workshops in addition to dedicated unshared time for the shower facilities.

Fiesta Island Youth Aquatic Center currently only has gender binary (male and female) options for dorms and bathroom facilities. Students of all gender identities are welcome to attend. However, students must choose either a female or male dorm and bathroom assignment.

Bathrooms have individual toilet stalls and showers are individually curtained. Shower times will be provided daily before dinner. Students are encouraged to shower regularly.

Students are housed in a traditional open-style dorms with bunk beds. Generally, there is one dorm for male identifying students and one dorm for female identifying students. On occasion, dorms may be split into three separate spaces with two dorms for one gender identity and the third dorm for the other gender identity. Each dorm is supervised overnight with by one instructor of the same gender identity. SEACAMP instructors are with the students 24 hours a day.

Our marine science facility provides us with lab and workshop facilities, aquariums, marine life touch tanks and the added benefit of a private beach. Most days will include a lab at our camp facility. Our labs are specifically designed to encourage a hands-on educational experience. Our aquariums, touch tanks and other interactive teaching tools provide students with a unique, interactive classroom environment.

Students attending SEACAMP II will also have the opportunity to participate in a two day live-aboard boat trip to the South Channel Islands. During the trip students and staff will be housed on the Horizon Charters' live-aboard dive boat, one of the largest dive boats in Southern California, which is comfortably equipped for many days at sea.

Meals & Special Dietary

Meals will be provided by our caterer, bringing them on-site from their kitchens. Breakfasts and dinners are usually cafeteria-style meals eaten at camp and are varied and well-balanced. Lunches are “brown-bag” style, usually eaten in the field with sandwiches, fresh fruit, and a snack. For students attending SEACAMP II, during the live-aboard boat trip, Horizon Charters boat crew will provide meals.

Any student's special dietary needs must be provided on Release Forms. If SEACAMP San Diego is not made aware of the needs of a student, those needs will not be met during SEACAMP session and student will eat regularly provided meals. Please be as specific as possible when describing dietary needs (i.e. for: ovo-lacto vegetarian, pescatarian, vegan, etc.). Please note, there is a limit to what our caterer can provide and to the food preparation facilities at camp. Please give us a call to address any questions or concerns regarding dietary needs. Based on responses, additional information may be required. Participants with very restrictive dietary requirements may not be able to be accommodated and/or students may be required to supplement camp meals. Dietary information will be shared with our third-party caterer. Dietary information will also be shared with boat crew for SEACAMP II.

Communication & Unplugged Experience

Student cell phone communication along with all other electronics use (except digital cameras) is prohibited. Upon arrival, cell phones along with other electronics will be turned off and collected, then returned upon departure from camp. We take this policy very seriously and expect all students and parents to comply.

While your student is here with us at SEACAMP San Diego, we are excited to give them an “unplugged” experience. Time away from the computer, TV, and cell phone means more time for learning, interacting, and being out in the field and on the water. This unique unplugged experience allows your student to truly engage with other students and all of the activities he or she will be participating in.

SEACAMP instructors have access to cell phones at all times for inter-staff and emergency use. Should your child become ill or injured while attending SEACAMP San Diego, we will, of course, make sure that parents are kept informed about the situation and progress. Whenever possible, parents/guardians will be included in decisions regarding their child’s care. Please be sure to discuss with your student the importance of communicating any illness or issues with SEACAMP staff. We cannot address or help remedy situations we are not made aware of. Students will need to communicate any health problems or concerns.

For most families, it is the parents who find it hardest to cut ties with their student during a camp session. Students are engaged with new activities, new friends and busy schedules – no news is good news!

Camper Email & Mail

As you will not be receiving phone calls from your student after arrival at camp, please remember that no news is good news - your child is OK and having a great time! Again, no news is good news! You can, however, send messages via email to your student during their SEACAMP session. Messages will be printed and delivered once a day – please refrain from sending photos, as we do our best to keep waste minimal. Students will not be able to reply. For students attending SEACAMP II camper mail will not be delivered during the live-aboard boat trip. Messages should be sent to camper@seacamp.com with your student’s name in the subject line. Please be aware that messages are sometimes scanned and those with inappropriate subject matter will not be delivered and may be forwarded to the parent/guardian.

Care packages or letters are not permitted and will not be delivered to students. Unfortunately, the lengths of camp sessions are not conducive to timely arrivals. In the case of forgotten medications or other emergencies, please contact us and we will provide delivery options/instructions.

Emergency Information

If there is an emergency at home that requires immediate communication with SEACAMP Staff or your student, please call 1-800-SEACAMP (1-800-732-2267). Please add this phone number to your list of contacts prior to your student’s session.

Calls after normal business hours will be answered by our emergency page system. Emergency messages will be relayed to instructors promptly. Please use discretion when leaving an emergency message, only leave messages that require immediate attention.

If you have upsetting information and are unsure whether to communicate it to your student, please contact SEACAMP during normal business hours to discuss the best course of action.

If your child becomes ill or injured while attending SEACAMP, we will make sure that parents/guardians are kept informed of situation and progress. Whenever possible, parents will be included in decisions regarding care. In the case of an emergency, staff will first provide care to student and ensure a secure, safe environment before contacting parents. Parents/guardians are contacted first, and if we are unable to reach them, we will then contact the emergency adult listed on the Release Forms.

Staff & Safety Information

SEACAMP San Diego Marine Science Instructors possess at least a college degree and are certified Red Cross Lifeguards with First Aid and CPR for the Professional Rescuer including first aid for marine hazards. Additionally, all instructors are finger printed with the Department of Justice & FBI and all have Class-C commercial driver’s licenses. SEACAMP San Diego does not retain a nurse on staff, although we do have a paramedic consultant on call. We are within close proximity of emergency care and are in a 9-1-1 service area.

SEACAMP San Diego tuition includes 24-hour supervision of students. The amount of supervisory instructors varies depending on the schedule. During snorkeling, there is one lifeguarded instructor with a maximum of seven students and instructor will have a rescue tube with them. All water activities require students to wear full-length, 7mm wet suits (which makes them buoyant). The only exception is for kayaking and stand up paddle boarding when students will be wearing a Coast Guard-approved Personal Flotation Device. In the controlled environment of camp, evening activities will have 2 to 5 staff depending on the activity. Dorms will be supervised overnight by one instructor of the same gender identity as the dorm.

During all boat trips, we are in Coast Guard range and during SEACAMP II live-aboard boat trips there is a satellite phone for emergencies.

Health and Hygiene

Student health information will be included on the Student Registration Forms. Forms should include all medical information regarding student. Student information is confidential and stays with SEACAMP staff at all times.

Medications

All over-the-counter (OTC) and prescription medications must be included on Student Registration Forms. All medications are held and administered by student and student is expected to manage own medications. All medications should be packed in a zip-top bag labeled with the student's name. SEACAMP is not authorized to hold or administer prescription medication to students. At bedtime, all prescription and over-the-counter medications will be collected to be stored in a locked container overnight. The only exception is for emergency medication such as epi-pens and inhalers, which are required to remain with participants at all times. General medication reminders will be given at breakfast and at dinner. Students with emergency medications (epi-pen, inhalers) will carry medications in their day pack. Staff will label pack with bright ribbon and will assist with administration in an emergency.

Hygiene

SEACAMP San Diego staff remind students to keep dorm space clean and clear, to shower regularly and to wear appropriate clothing. A list of needed items for the day is provided every morning. Students have access to water and sunscreen all day - staying well-hydrated and sunburn-free is key to a successful camp experience. Reminders are given frequently but parent/guardians should discuss expectations regarding sun exposure, appropriate attire, hygiene, hydration, etc. prior to camp session. Ultimately, it is the student's responsibly to manage hygiene and to stay well-hydrated and sunburn-free.

Sea sickness

Students prone to motion or sea sickness should bring over-the-counter medications such as non-drowsy Dramamine or Bonine. Ginger and pressure point bands are among the non-medicinal remedies.

All students are required to participate in an initial check-out dive to evaluate skills and acclimate to equipment to continue in SCUBA Program.

SCUBA Diving during SEACAMP II sessions is a choice and a privilege. SEACAMP reserves the right to remove a student from the program at any time, should a student's dive leader feel they are jeopardizing the safety of themselves or the group. If this is determined SCUBA fees will not be refunded.

Students may use their own dive gear or gear can be rented at SEACAMP for a $150.00 fee per student, session. Fees are paid online with the required forms.

Students must bring the following SCUBA items with them to camp:

1. SCUBA Certification card (if you cannot locate your card, contact the agency that your student is certified under (e.g. PADI, SSI, etc.) or the dive shop where the student was certified.
2. Dive Log showing dive training record and dives since certification.
3. Dive Tables or Computer (unless SEACAMP is providing).

As stated above, students are required to participate in an initial check-out dive to evaluate skills and acclimate to equipment to continue in SCUBA Program. This dive check is generally done in Mission Bay prior to the live aboard boat trip to the South Channel Islands. The rest of the dives will be done during the live-aboard boat trip. Students will be lead in dive groups of no more than five by staff members or boat crew who hold Divemaster or Instructor ratings. See the SEACAMP II schedule of activities for planned dives.
